Fines and Misdemeanors

Lee's No Pot Contract
Rule #1: You will be required to submit at least three random urine drug tests per month. I (your father) will administer these tests. If we (your parents) or your probation officer suspect pot use, we can immediately require a urine drug test in addition to your three random ones. I will go into the bathroom with you and watch you to ensure that the test is accurate. You will not know when you will be asked to submit. If you refuse to submit, test dirty, or get caught trying to skew the test, Consequence A will occur. If you test clean on your drug test, Consequence B will occur.
Consequence A:	You will immediately be subjected to a $50.00 fine if you either refuse to take the drug test, test dirty, or are caught trying to skew the test. You will have two weeks to pay back the fine through your own personal savings, selling your personal items at a pawn shop, or through extra chores at $5.00 per hour. A chore list will be posted on the refrigerator. You will hand over the $50.00 fine as a charitable contribution to the Bishop of our church for missionary work. You will also have to use your personal money to purchase the next drug testing kit. If the total amount is not paid by 5pm on the 14th day, we will immediately notify your probation officer and you will be placed in detention. Each time you test dirty, the same process will repeat itself.
Consequence B:	You will receive the following reward that you picked out to celebrate a clean test. One day off from having to go to church each week as long as you remain drug free. You will also receive what is called a "sobriety chip" each time you test clean. Each chip is worth $10.00 or up to a possible $30.00 a month. This money is yours to keep.
